EIGHTH MEMBER OF BANDIT GANG IS ARRESTED

"CLUB KILLER" MAY BE ONE OF SEVEN SUSPECTS IN JAIL

SEVERE THUNDER STORM LEADS TO RUMOR OF QUAKE

Fall River, Mass., Nov. 23.—Great excitement prevailed early today here and in all communities from here to Newport, R. I., by rumblings which were first taken to be an earthquake. Investigation, however, revealed that the earth jars were caused by a severe thunderstorm along the southern New England shoreline.

KIP CASE RESUMED WITH CHARGES HE WAS INTIMIDATED

Counsel for Rhinelander
And Wife C'ash When Court Opens.

White Plains, N. Y., Nov. 23.—With all women ordered from the courtroom, the famous two "mystery letters" in Leonard Kip Rhinelander's marriage annulment suit against his quondam wife were introduced into evidence and read today at the trial following charges by Rhinelander's counsel that the sensational missives were used by the defendant's lawyer to intimidate the plaintiff into withdrawing his suit.

Lee Parsons Davis, counsel for Mrs. Rhinelander, before reading the letters, drew from young Rhinelander during cross-examination that his relations with his wife were "always natural."

White Plains, N. Y., Nov. 23.—The Rhinelander trial is on again.

Following the abrupt halting of the action last Friday, Isaac N. Mills, counsel for young Rhinelander, opened the resumption of the suit today by charging that Lee Parsons Davis, lawyer for Mrs. Alice Rhinelander, had attempted to intimidate the plaintiff into withdrawing the suit by confronting him with the two "mystery letters" Rhinelander had written to his bride during the pre-marital courtship.

"Mr. Davis' tactics were to threaten this plaintiff with smearing these letters on the record and besmearing his reputation," declared Mills. "I read the letters and I was overcome."

Davis interrupted Mills frequently and the aged attorney for young Rhinelander shouted louder and louder.

Davis at the completion of Mills' sensational charge made a motion for a mistrial.

Justice Morschauer denied the motion.

Davis then made a motion to adjourn the trial. This motion was also denied.

Judge Mills read from the record that part in which Leonard declared he was his own free agent, and where Davis asked Rhinelander if he wanted to proceed with the suit after reading the first letter. Kip had answered "Yes."

Then, defying Lee Parsons Davis "to do his worst," Mills dramatically charged opposing counsel with intimidation, pounding the counsel table during his statement.

Killer May Have Abandoned
His Campaign, Toledo
Police Believe.

VOLUNTEERS HELP POLICE ROUNDUP

Saturday Night's Victim Is Improving; No New Outbreak Last Night.

Toledo, Nov. 23.—Chief of Police Jennings was confident today that either the "club killer" maniac, who has instituted a veritable reign of terror in the fashionable west end residential section of the city, had abandoned the campaign, which has resulted in the death of two women and the serious injury of many others, or was one of the seven suspects held in the city prison as a result of the activities of police and volunteer workers.

The seven suspects had been rounded up by police assisted by a squad of 50 picked members of the American Legion post. Chief of Police Jennings has decided to dispense with the services of most of the untrained volunteers, following a shot fired at a detective by one of these last night. While the detective was unhurt, the chief believes that men unaccustomed to the use of firearms may do more harm than good should the "club killer" renew his activities.

Saturday Night's Victim
There was no new outbreak last night, and it was due to this fact that authorities believed either the man they sought was one of these held or else had fled from Toledo.

Louise Brown, Saturday night's victim, was taken home from the hospital today, but she was still dazed as a result of the attack. A physician who examined the bump on her head expressed the belief that a sandbag and not a club had been used by the killer. Miss Brown, as soon as she recovers, as well as other victims of the maniac will be asked to look over the prisoners in the hope of a positive identification.

Meanwhile today Chief Jennings' mail had swelled to mammoth proportions, people in all sections of the United States offering "tips" on how to "get" the mad man. The most common advice was to get some bloodhounds, and use them in trailing the maniac. Jennings said he had already reported some, and that at the next report of an attack they would be put on the trail.

FAMINE FEARED AS FIRE SWEEPS NOME

Buildings Famous During
Gold Rush Destroyed;
Explosion Blamed.

Nome, Alaska, Nov. 23.—Nome faced possible famine today as the result of having been swept by fire last night.

The flames destroyed buildings that became historic during the gold rush. Damage was estimated at $299,090. Citizens feared a food shortage might follow the fire, as the largest grocery store here was burned down.

Four men were injured making their escape from burning buildings. Explosion of an oil lamp is supposed to have caused the fire.

"Doc" Kemp, overcome by smoke in a burning building, was saved when Dr. Hoelscher battled his way through the flames and carried the unconscious man to the street.

Julius Jensen was badly cut by glass while fighting his way to safety. The Gold Belt dance hall, a relic of the early days, was destroyed.

The "Board of Trade" now a soft drink parlor, was also consumed by the flames. The bar fixtures brought here in 1900 by "Lucky" Baldwin were part of this building.

The banquet was served by the women of the Christian church at the church followed by this program:

A meeting was held at the K. of P. home, Chestnut st., at which eight past chancellors were initiated into the association.

WARNING TO NATION, MITCHELL DEFENSE

Flying Colonel On Witness Stand Admits
All His Statements Are Not Based On Facts; Paints Japan As Menace.

Washington, Nov. 23.—Col. William Mitchell, stormy petrel of aviation, issued his sensational attacks upon the conduct of America's national defense in order to warn the American people that the nation is at the mercy of enemy powers, because of pitiful weakness in the air.

This was the personal defense raised by the flying colonel today when he took the witness stand before his court martial jury of generals.

All Not Based On Facts
Under questioning by Rep. Frank R. Reid, (R) of Illinois, Mitchell testified that a hundred recommendations for developing aviation had been ignored by high army and navy heads. Then when his picture broke down in aviation began to gather a frightful toll of human lives, as exemplified in the Shenandoah crash, he made his appeal to the general public.

On cross examination Mitchell frankly admitted some of his San Antonio statements, for which he was court martialled, were not based on facts. They constituted merely his opinion, he said, and his beliefs on what should be done to safeguard America's national defense.

Mitchell boldly painted Japan as America's menace in the Pacific and declared he meant Japan when he said an enemy power could sweep America from the Pacific under our present system of national defense, which gives aviation only a minor part. In future wars, he predicted submarines and aircraft will be the greatest weapons and the huge armies of the World War and past, may never come into action.

Recites Military Record
The colonel was dressed in the new air service uniform and his breast was ablaze with military decorations. Under questions by Reid, Mitchell

THIEVES CHISEL WAY INTO OFFICE

Money Taken From Offices
Of Atty. Connell and School Board.

Lisbon, Nov. 23.—By the use of a chisel, thieves entered the office of Atty. C. C. Connell, on the second floor of the Firestone bank building, Sunday night, rifled the desks and stole $4 in money.

The office of the county board of education in the same building was entered at the same time and in the same manner and $25 and some change taken from the desks. The thieves pushed a chisel into the side of the door and pried back the Yale lock. Nothing else has been missed from either office.

The robberies which have been reported to Sheriff George Wright are believed by him to have been the work of local talent.

POLITICAL FRANCE TURNS TO BRIAND TO FORM CABINET

Hero of Locarno Only Man Deemed Capable of Uniting Factions

PAINLEVE FINANCE PLAN IS REJECTED

Rivalry Between Right and
Peace Difficult.

Paris, Nov. 23.—Aristide Briand has decided to refuse invitations to form a cabinet. It was learned this afternoon.

President Doumergue has summoned Briand to the presidential palace at 6 o'clock tonight.

Paris, Nov. 23.—With the Painleve government voted out of power after three weeks of existence, political France today turned to Aristide Briand, the "hero of Locarno," as the only man deemed capable in government circles of commanding a majority in both the chamber of deputies and the senate.

Briand hurried back to Paris from Normandy last night whether he had gone for the sake of his health. He returned at the urgent behest of his friends who besought him to accept the task of organizing a new government if the request was made of him by President Doumergue.

The outgoing cabinet is this afternoon asking the senate to pass an immediate project for increasing the bank of France by 1,500,000,000 francs. This measure of inflation will undoubtedly meet with strong opposition, but with heavy demands upon the treasury since June 1, it seems impossible to avoid some degree of inflation.

Political Rivalry
The difficulty in finding a government leader lies in the fact the senate is controlled by the right wing, whereas the chamber of deputies is ruled by the powerful left block. Briand is apparently the only man in all France capable of achieving an accord in the midst of these rivalries.

There has been some talk of a political truce such as was in effect during the war but all parties admit this is impossible because of the bitterness of the disputants.

Meaning rumors about a coup to be staged by the ever growing French blue shirted fascists are being generally discounted, the group though strong, being still lacking in both numerical and political strength.

Whatever government is formed, it will inevitably be confronted with the task of demanding a higher moratorium inflation in order to meet the bonds due on Dec. 8, this notwithstanding the chamber of deputies has already rejected the idea on the ground that it would unavoidably bring about a further decline in the value of the franc.

RUSSEL TO HEAR WELLSVILLE CASES

Bcoze Cases Scheduled For Tuesday; Salem Woman
To Plead Guilty.

Four alleged bootleggers from Wellsville will appear in Mayor George E. Russell's court Tuesday afternoon to answer to charges of liquor law violations, preferred against them by two state prohibition enforcement officers, out of Commissioner B. McDonald's office the afternoon of Nov. 7.

The four are Charles Prezzia, charged with manufacturing and possession; Modesta Lozza, Rocce Carisella and Tony Venzialis, charged with possession.

A fifth person arrested by the raiders, Mary Pratella, wife of Alex. Pratella, Broadway cafe owner here, has decided to plead guilty, and a fine of $500 and costs has been levied on her. It was stated today at City Hall, it is likely that she will appear Tuesday to enter a formal plea and pay the fine.

Surprising Wellsville police and city officials, the two state men raided six prominent Italian business houses and restaurants on a busy Saturday afternoon. In two places the booze was dumped but the officers claim they found booze at the other four, including a still at Prezzia's.

Coolidge's Father
Continues To Gain
Plymouth, Vermont, Nov. 23.—John C. Coolidge, father of the president, continued to gain ground today in his battle against heart disease. His condition continues to improve despite a slight sinking spell suffered Sunday afternoon.

Major James F. Connel, the White House physician, is still attending the colonel and trying to persuade him to go to Washington to obtain the benefit of the warmer climate and to be near expert medical advice.

WOMAN, ACCUSED LEAPS FROM AN AUTO, IS KILLED

Columbus, Nov. 23.—The eternal triangle, and an auto accident combined to cause the death of Mrs. Myrtle Smith, 26, for whom funeral arrangements, were being made here today.

Mrs. Smith Sunday night accepted the invitation from Mrs. George L. Parrish to ride in her automobile. A quarrel, police said, ensued when Mrs. Parrish demanded that Mrs. Smith leave Columbus and stop meeting Mrs. Parrish's husband.

After Mrs. Parrish threatened to take Mrs. Smith to the police station and request her arrest, Mrs. Smith, it was claimed, jumped out of the auto striking her head on the paved street. Another machine ran over her. She died before she could be removed from the street.

Coroner Murphy pronounced death due to a fractured skull. Mrs. Parrish was questioned by police and the other but was not held.

NATION-WIDE COAL STRIKE IS THREAT OF MINERS' CHIEF

Strike May Extend To Soft
Coal Regions; Appeal
Sent To Coolidge.

Philadelphia, Pa., Nov. 23.—A threat of a nationwide soft coal strike was seen today as the latest move of union leaders to force intervention in the strike of 158,000 hard coal miners which has been in progress since Sept. 1.

Winter is coming on apace and settlement of the anthracite strike seems to be as far away as ever.

The newest move, a letter to President Coolidge, is made by John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America. Lewis specifically asks the president whether the government desires to intervene to maintain the integrity of the Jacksonville soft wage agreement.

Lewis charges that this agreement, which was reached with the cooperation of the departments of justice, commerce and labor, is being violated by the operators.

The switching of action from the anthracite fields, where a strike is in progress, to the bituminous fields, where there is no strike, was regarded today as significant. Lewis' action was considered in some quarters as a covert threat to call a strike in the principal soft coal fields of the country.

PASSENGERS HURT AS TRAINS CRASH

Pennsy Train Jumps Track
Sideswipes Another;
Traffic Tied Up.

Cleveland, Nov. 23.—Two persons today were suffering from slight injuries while many others, passengers on Pennsylvania train 313, Pittsburgh to Cleveland, were recounting their miraculous escape from death or serious injury, as a result of a wreck at Maple Heights last night, when the train jumped the track, while traveling 55 miles an hour, and sideswiped the rear end of a wrecking train sent out to clear a freight wreck at Barborton.

The injured, Mrs. James E. Hewett, a passenger of Cleveland, and Vera Novotny, brakeman on the passenger train, also of Cleveland. They are in Bedford hospital.

A broken rail was believed to have caused the accident. The track was torn up for a distance of several hundred feet and all traffic over the Pennsylvania was tied up for hours, trains being rerouted over the Wheeling & Lake Erie and Baltimore & Ohio railroads.

The engine ploughed through ties and earth for nearly 600 feet, followed by the baggage car and six passenger coaches. Coaches of the passenger train sideswiped the wreck train, southbound on another track.

FOUR BOMBINGS STIR CHICAGO TO BOOTLEG PROBE

Chicago, Nov. 23.—Four bombings, two at the homes of policemen who had been active against bootleggers, another in which a woman had her skull fractured, and one at a tire shop, supposed to result from labor trouble, were being investigated by the police today.

Bombs were exploded at the homes of Patrolmen William Watts and James Skala, both active in recent raids on bootlegging establishments. Mrs. Sophie Starcek sustained a fractured skull when a bomb was exploded in a restaurant where she was eating.

KELLY IS ACCUSED OF CHICKEN THEFT, TAKEN TO LISBON

McCave Brothers Arrested Again; One Gives Officer Trouble.

FLEES TWICE THEN HE IS HANDCUFFED

All Now Are Held In Jail;
Two Said to Have Confessed Thefts.

One more member of the alleged Salem gang of bandits and chicken thieves was arrested here Saturday night, and two members of the gang who had been released on bond were rearrested by Salem police at the request of Sheriff George Wright who has been conducting investigations from Lisbon.

Paul Kelly, the eighth member of the gang, was placed under arrest for complicity with Paul McCave and Fred Taylor in the theft of chickens at the farm of Samuel Healdstead.

Paul McCave, following an altercation with Patrolman Paul Heckert, was arrested by Heckert here and Canton police took Raymond McCave, a brother, into custody there at the request of Salem police several hours after Paul was picked up here.

The trio were taken to Lisbon by deputy sheriffs, placed under $1,000 bond each, and in default of arrangements for bond, were placed in the county jail with the other five members of the gang, Fred Taylor, Shelby Carlisle, Harold Thompson, Charles Rogers and Chalmers Votaw. There they will stay until the grand jury meets in January.

The arrest of the McCaves Saturday came as a surprise following their release last week in Lisbon on $1,000 bonds each on another charge of chicken thievery.

In addition to the two charges of chicken thievery, the McCaves have been convicted of attempted robbery of a gas filling station here during the summer and have been sentenced to one to 15 years in the Mansfield reformatory which sentence at the time being held up while an appeal is made by Atty. K. L. Coburn.

When Heckert tried to arrest Paul McCave on Main st. near Broadway Saturday night, McCave tripped Heckert, throwing him to the ground, and momentarily escaped. Heckert, who had been taken by surprise, jerked out his billy from his pocket and gave chase.

At Landy and Main Heckert caught McCave, and rapped him on the head with the billy. McCave, stunned, dropped, but suddenly got up and ran around the Hotel Metzger building. Heckert gave chase again, and this time, after catching him, put handcuffs on McCave and took him to jail.

Thompson, Votaw, Carlisle, and Rogers composed the quartet first arrested for numerous robberies and holdups in Salem and vicinity. Following these arrests the county authorities offered their aid, and since then the police and the sheriff took in the other four.

Alleged Confession
Taylor and Kelly, according to stories from Lisbon, have pleaded guilty to one job of chicken stealing each.

Sheriff Wright and the police are still trying to find out where the "fence" is where the gang disposed of chickens stolen. Chief of Police T. W. Thompson said last week that one of the gang confessed to disposing of chickens in a Youngstown market, but the sheriff thinks that poultry has also been taken to Cleveland or Canton.

The members of the gang are held incommunicado from each other in the hope that some will break down and tell everything in addition to the few things already confessed.

The investigation of the gang's activities will continue indefinitely. Two Columbiana youths, though not supposed to be members of the Salem gang are being held at the county jail on felony charges for alleged participation in jobs around Columbiana.

NOEL SENTENCED TO DIE IN CHAIR

Newark, N. J., Nov. 23.—Harrison W. Noel, 29, convicted murderer of Raymond Pierce, taxi driver, today was sentenced by County Judge Edwin C. Caffrey to die in the electric chair during the week of Jan. 10.

Noel was alleged to have killed Pierce, then, used his car to kidnap Mary Daly, six, whom he later murdered.

Conviction of Boy
Slayer Is Upheld

Philadelphia, Nov. 2.—The decision of the Schuylkill county court was up held by the supreme court here today in the case of William C. Cavalier, the youth found guilty, some months ago, of the murder of his grandmother Jean Portaville, Pa.

Golden Rule in Europe

Things are really moving in Europe, which Americans lately thought so hopeless. There is real progress, incredible as it seems, the promise held forth by the Locarno treaties is in the way of fulfillment.

A note from the Allies to Germany recognizes that the latter country has largely fulfilled their demands already, and has given satisfactory pledges on the issues still pending. Wherefore the Allies state that they will begin the military evacuation of Cologne on Dec. 1 and will abolish the allied commission of military control in Germany on Feb. 1. If Germany continues doing her part.

The military control of Germany will then be taken over by the League of Nations, in which Germany herself will be represented. Then, instead of the force and bluster that have characterized the situation since the armistice, there will be merely official observation by the league representatives of German compliance with military condition of the Versailles treaty. Common council and publicity will take the place of coercion.

Whether this is treating Germany more generously and mildly than she deserves is a question that it is no longer profitable to discuss. When France and Belgium, chief sufferers of German aggression, forego hatred and recrimination in favor of conciliation and co-operation, there is no reason why less aggrieved allies and associates should not do likewise.

The spirit shown recently on both sides is really an astonishing development. What it amounts to is applied Christianity in international relations. The Christian world has seldom or never tried that. But something may come of it, if the after statesmen keep the courage of their new faith. Lesser folk have been telling them for years that Christianity was the only solution for what ailed Europe. The Golden Rule may be the most potent "formula" after all—and the most profitable.

THE LEGAL ARENA

"The American court of justice," says a prominent lawyer, "has become an arena in which attorneys combat while the judge looks on and acts as umpire. Incidentally justice may or may not be done in the case on trial."

He declares that the public has lost confidence in the present system of administering justice, which is certainly not far from the truth.

What is to be done about it? The lawyer quoted says the remedy lies mainly in the hands of the judges and attorneys themselves. It is up to the legal profession to correct the evils it has created and tolerated.

Judges, he explains, are badly handicapped by state laws and rules of the higher courts which limit their authority and action. Yet judges or clerks could use much more authority than they do in curbing the improper activities and delays of trial lawyers. The lawyers themselves owe it to their profession and to the cause of justice to stop treating a case trial as a sport, and labor more to promote justice and save time and money for clients and public.

In this professional opinion, laymen will heartily concur.

Data On Mars

By FREDERIC J. HASKIN

Washington, Nov. 23—For centuries the planet Mars has intrigued the imaginations of men. Flashing angrily from the blackness of the void its red orb explains why the ancients named it for the war god. It might well be his evil eye glaring at the struggling earth with malignance in its look.

Its character—what it is like—has long been a matter of conjecture. Astronomers have set forth various theories about it and it has been the subject of fantastic novels. Indeed, so great that one astronomer is said to have walked off the balcony of his observation tower in his ecstasy after having discovered something about it.

But with the advance of years Mars is relinquishing many secrets. And a recent pamphlet published by the Bureau of Standards and prepared by W. W. Coblentz contains data which show that it has a lot in common with our planet.

Mars approached closest to earth, it is attained its greatest brightness, 100, on Aug. 21, 1924. Almost half a century must elapse before it attains a similar brightness and then it will only be one of 98. Fifteen years must elapse before it will even attain a brightness of 90. Hence the findings of Coblentz during the brightness of last year must be regarded as the most important for many years to come, as they were made at the most propitious time possible.

Temperature on the surface of the war god's world, when it is exposed to solar radiation, is a much debated question. Some of the older observations indicated a temperature much below zero centigrade. They would tend to show that the Martian, if he exists, leads a frigid sort of life, and that he must have a whale of a coal bill, but more recent observations show different results.

Observations at the Lowell Observatory, Flagstaff, Arizona, made recently, introduced new factors, which were previously neglected and calculate temperatures considerably above zero centigrade. They agree with visual observations which have been made for years. These show a periodic waxing and waning of the Martian polar caps, presumably of snow and the disappearance of the white deposits of frost under the Martian noonday sun.

Atmospheric conditions, mundane or Martian, greatly affect temperature readings. Also atmospheric conditions on Mars, of course, seriously influence temperature there. Much light has been thrown on these phenomena by the observations at Lowell.

It gets cloudy on Mars. And it is possible that the Martians look for the silver lining. They have tremendous clouds, which are visible at times, from the earth. Occasionally these are conspicuous because of their size, brightness, and unusual location.

Slowly Mars is revealing itself to this planet. It is very similar to the earth in size and with respect to its relation to the sun. And now it would appear that its surface conditions are not greatly different.

Q. Is there any difference in the food value of a white and a brown egg? M. D. M.

A. Analyses show that there is practically no difference in composition between hens' eggs with dark shells and those with white shells. However, there is a popular belief that the former are "richer."

Q. Is the Ben Day Process a printer's term? J. N. F.

A. The Ben Day Process is the process invented by Benjamin Day, a New York printer (1838-1916) for mechanically producing a great variety of shaded tints and mottled effects on line or half-tone pictorial plates, decorative designs and borders.

Q. How is air tested for carbon monoxide? J. R. K.

A. This is done by means of the hydride. The hydride is prepared by mixing fuming sulphuric acid and iodine, using granular pumice stone as a supporting material. A sample of the air to be tested for carbon monoxide is drawn into a small rubber bulb, then forced through a small glass tube filled with the chemicals upon which the carbon monoxide has the effect of changing the original color from gray or white to shades of green the deepness of the green determining the percentage of carbon monoxide in the air.

Q. What hymn did Tennyson regard as the world's greatest? M. D. B.

A. Robert E. Smith in "Modern Messages from Great Hymns" says that the poet laureate so regarded Bishop Heber's hymn, "Holy, Holy, Holy."

Q. It is claimed that black substances absorb heat and that white reflect the heat. Can this be proved correct by placing strips of white and black cloth on ice and placing them in the sun? If this is a fact, then would not a colored man's skin absorb more heat than a white person's? H. C. H.

A. It is an accepted fact that black substances absorb the heat while white reflect it. If two pieces of cloth, one black and the other white, be placed upon ice, it will be found that when the sun shines on them, the black piece will absorb the heat and melt its way into the ice, more readily than white. The same law applies in all cases. The dark color of the skin of the negro race is due to the excessive development of pigment as a natural protection against the ultra violet rays in which the tropical light is so rich, and which are destructive to protoplasm.

Q. Please tell me in what parts of the United States rainbow trout are found. How large have they been known to grow? A. L. A.

A. The rainbow trout is the trout of the Pacific Coast ranges from Central California northward to Puget Sound. It takes its name from the large, brilliant spots scattered over its bluish-silvery body. Twenty-six and a half pounds and approximately 42 inches long is the largest species of the rainbow trout recorded.

Q. How long would it take an average person to count one million one dollar bills, and how long would it take an expert? E. G. G.

A. The Treasury department says that the length of time it would take for a person to count one million one dollar bills would depend entirely on the rapidity of the counter. Some of the counters in the department have counted as many as 40,000 notes a day. Many of the treasury experts count 20,000 a day.

For the 15th time Mrs. Mike Kanja, 124 Depot st. was "saved from death" at the hands of her husband Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Kanja was standing outside her home, yelling, "help, save me, my husband is killing me," according to the report received.

Fireman McIlvane found a lively family argument in progress and Kanja, well oiled with some type of brew, was brought to City Hall and jailed.

"She told me I have another sweetheart, and she lies," declared Mike, explaining the situation. After that remark of his wife's, Mike is said to have opened the festivities with a shot to the jaw, and after Mrs. Kanja ran out of the house, he locked the door on her.

Every time Mike and Mrs. Mike have a disagreement, she calls wildly over the phone to the police, "help, save me, Mike is killing me."

Berlin, Nov. 23.—The German cabinet will resign immediately after the Locarno pact is signed in London, on December 1. Chancellor Luther announced in the reichstag this afternoon, when he appeared before that body to urge the ratification of the Locarno pact.

Chancellor Luther's announcement came as no surprise because it had been generally understood that he had agreed to sacrifice himself and his cabinet as the price of Socialist support for the ratification of the Locarno documents.

Grid Player's Back Is Crushed By Auto

San Jose, Calif., Nov. 23.—Leslie Herth, guard on the Stanford football squad, has probably played his last game of football. Today he lies in the Palo Alto hospital, fighting for his life, with his back badly crushed.

Herth, accompanied by Miss Frances Jongeneel, a Stanford student left here in an automobile yesterday afternoon to visit friends in Oakland.

Near Mountain View, the car skidded in the heavy dust and turned over. Both were removed to the hospital at Palo Alto.

Miss Jongeneel sustained a broken collar bone and severe cuts.

FRENCH SUBMIT BASIS FOR PLAN OF DISARMAMENT

Paris, Nov. 27.—No single country's armaments shall be allowed to exceed the combined forces of all the countries mobilized against her in case she violates the League of Nations ruling.

This is the broad principle upon which France will demand that all future disarmament conferences be held, and this is the basis which she will insist upon for the proposed League of Nations disarmament conference.

France hopes to rule the United States out as an influential factor in determining future disarmament principles. It is the intention of France to keep the question of disarmament under league supervision, and France hopes to wield a powerful influence in the league.

Saved From Kidnappers Who Planned to Bury Her Alive

A morbid mystery surrounds the remarkable experience of Mrs. Peter Contose, 23, Memphis, Tenn., who was found gagged and semi-conscious in the family automobile on a lonely road, after three captors fled. A few yards away, in a field, was a newly dug grave. The warning note above had been sent to her husband the previous afternoon. She was captured while driving to friends, and remembers hearing the captors say they were going to bury her alive. Neither she nor her husband know of any enemies who might be responsible. She is under care of a physician while police continue investigation of the case. Mrs. Contose and the grave dug for her are pictured.

LAST MAJOR ROAD JOBS IN COUNTY NEAR COMPLETION

Push Salem-Hanover Road Grading: Open W. Point Wellsville Road.

The last of the major road contracts awarded in this county during 1925 are now nearing completion and within a few months all road work will be at a standstill for the time being.

The largest road job now under contract is the grading of the four miles or more of the Hanover-Salem rd. in Hanover township and in charge of the McGinn Construction Co. of Columbus. There have been two steam shovels working on this job, and the larger of the two has been taken from a section of road where grading was light and put to work in deeper cuts.

Slightly in excess of two miles of grading have been finished on the road in Hanover township, and practically all of the drainage work has been completed. It is believed that about two months more of steady work will about finish the grading on this road, and it will then be ready for surfacing from the Lincoln highway at Hanover north through Hanover township, and through Butler township to connect with the Salem-Winona rd.

Gibson & Bixby have been progressing favorably on the grading of the Salineville-Summitville rd. in Franklin township, and this particular section is expected to be finished by Christmas. The same firm has been awarded a contract for grading about one-half mile of this road in Fox township, Carroll county. Practically all drainage work on this job has been completed, and about 9,000 cubic yards of grading remain to be done on the Columbiana county section of the job.

Finish West Point Road. Lewis & Copeland, who had the contract for the surfacing of the Yellow Creek township section of the Wellsville-Salineville rd. are now engaged in throwing up temporary berms for the winter season. The permanent berms will not be thrown up until next spring. The object of the temporary berms is to keep water from running under the paved part of the road, and at the same time making the road more safe for traffic. The temporary berms will very likely be finished within the next two weeks. Unless unforeseen circumstances alter plans, this road will be opened to traffic between Wellsville and Salineville perhaps the first week in December.

Wants Compulsory Vaccination Taboo

Columbus, Nov. 23.—Plans for a campaign seeking initiation of a bill prohibiting compulsory vaccination in Ohio are being considered today by officials of the Anti-Compulsory Vaccination association of Columbus. At one time in England heavier hats were compulsory and makers were prohibited from using any other material.

VILLAGERS WEEP AT QUEEN'S BIER

Body of Dowager Queen To Be Taken to London For Public Rites.

Sandringham, Eng., Nov. 23.—Queen Alexandra's body rests in the chancel of the church of St. Mary Magdalene, bathed in the screened lights of the famous old stained glass windows.

Hour after hour the Sandringham villagers file past the simple coffin of the queen, many of them weeping, for with the passing of the queen they have lost a friend.

Two aged retainers of the queen's household stand guard over the body keeping the unending lines slowly passing.

At noon the church is closed to the public for a half hour, while King George and Queen Mary walk from York cottage to the church for a few moments alone with the body of the king's dead mother.

The body of the queen will remain at Sandringham until Thursday, when it will be taken to London, and then will come the first of the public observances of respect for the dead dowager queen. The body will arrive at Liverpool street station in London, and after being placed upon a gun carriage, will be slowly driven over the same route that Queen Alexandra used to drive over in her triumphal rose day drives.

Throng will line the route of the funeral procession to pay their respects to the queen. The body will be taken to St. James palace where it will remain over night and on Friday will be taken to Westminster Abbey for public funeral ceremonies.

On Saturday the body will be taken to Windsor for burial.

BRING UP FATHER

BY GEORGE McMANUS

Thanksgiving Day

Over three hundred years ago, after a bountiful harvest, the New England colonists "set apart a day for the giving of thanks with feasting and prayer."

The custom still prevails but to many Thanksgiving means only pumpkin pie, turkey and other good things to eat.

But thankful indeed is the thrifty man who enjoys his pumpkin pie and turkey with the knowledge that a growing SAVINGS ACCOUNT provides for tomorrow as well as for today and that there will be pumpkin pie and turkey again next Thanksgiving.

This Bank Will Be Closed All Day Thursday

Boat Goes Over Dam,
Oil Magnate Drowns

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 23.—River craft of every description joined today in combing the Allegheny river below Springdale, Pa., for the body of Colonel Ulysses Grant Lyons, 58, wealthy Warren, Pa., oil magnate, who was drowned in the stream's icy waters Sunday when his houseboat "Frances Jane" hurtled over dam No. 3.

Witnesses to the accident put out in motor boats to the scene of the accident and succeeded in saving Lyons' chauffeur, Blaine (Casey) Jones, also of Warren.

By Direct Command

They were discussing the advent of their baby sister, but neither could give a satisfactory explanation of the new arrival.

At last the elder boy said: "I know how it was."

"How?" asked his brother.

"Why," he explained, with an air of belief and devotion, "God said, 'Let there be Phyllis,' and there was Phyllis."

Village Engineers Can't Claim Profit From Any Contract

Columbus, Nov. 23.—Atty. Gen. Crabbe today in a ruling given the state bureau of public accounting held that the state law prohibiting a public official from profiting financially in connection with purchases by political subdivisions, or in connection with contracts for public improvements, applies to an engineer appointed by a village council.

Crabbe ruled that such an engineer, compensated on a percentage basis by the village for supervising street improvements, may be forced to pay into the village treasury the profits he made as a contractor who was awarded contract for making the improvements. The attorney general held that under the circumstances such contracts are void.

COFFEE'S DAZZLING RUNS DEFEAT LEETONIA

SALEM HIGH CRUSHES CHAMPIONS, 13-0

First Touchdown Scored as Salem's Flashy Quarterback Dashes 80 Yards; Leetonia's Hopes for Second Title Gone.

In his own spectacular way, Charlie Coffee, red-jerseyed phantom of the county gridirons, tore off two breath-taking runs which resulted in touchdowns, and enabled Salem High to cause Leetonia High's first defeat in two years here Saturday afternoon at Reilly field.

The Red and Black won by a 13 to 0 score, and that result spoiled Leetonia's hopes of winning a second county championship in as many years. For the first time since 1923 the Blue and White bowed before a heavier team, headed by the red-doubtable Coffee.

Like a streak of fire Coffee sent the largest crowd of the season into a spasm of delight and regret, he caught a Leetonia punt on the 20-yard line and dashed around the entire Leetonia team for a touchdown. That run deserves a place with county history's greatest plays.

Spectacular Dash
Leetonia, down in the southeast corner of the field, tried two plays for a little gain after receiving the Salem kickoff. The Blue punted, the ball taking a course to the northwest corner of the field. For a moment it looked as though the ball would bounce outside the line.

Then Coffee, who had been hot in its trail, scooped it up. Like a Grange inspecting his field Coffee stopped momentarily. He moved forward slightly and drew Leetonia in still more. Then he turned like a top, and started for the east side of the field. Everywhere along the line he found a Red and Black player to aid him.

Cutting a semi-circle Coffee edged in from a straight line east, and getting assistance from his own men the great back sped due south. On Coffee ran, bounding over the muddy gridiron to a touchdown. Thrilling to the utmost, that run put all kinds of life into Salem.

Clarence Siding, who did the majority of the punting Saturday dropped just before the third quarter ended. Coffee made another wonderful return of a punt, and placed the ball within striking distance of the Leetonia goal line. After a change of scenery at the fourth period, Coffee opened Salem's bag of tricks, and using passes, rushes and deceptive work, brought the Salem eleven to the five yard line. Coffee did little of this work, the other backs knifing through. Then he skirted left end for the final touchdown. A pass for the extra point failed.

Leetonia Line Strong
Salem faced one of the strongest lines it has been against in its nine games this season. Aside from the ends, who were woefully weak, Leetonia had a stone wall in the center part of the line. Like the ends, the Blue backfield was weak. And Nicolett was not the field general he had been cracked up to be.

Salem generally speaking did not present its usual tight defense though the line did splendidly at times. Miller was probably the chief performer of the Salem line. The Salem backfield showed power, and Campbell, Gregg, Konert, Harsh and the Sidingers not only were good on the offense but broke up the Leetonia air attack and stopped Leetonia after the Blue would get through the line. Salem's line was weakened by the fact that Older, its leading star, was suffering from a badly cut leg and only played a few minutes.

Leetonia Air Attack Fails
Alternately Salem seemed sluggish and fired with zeal. Leetonia would

LISBON DEFEATS COLUMBIANA, 7-0
Columbiana, Nov. 23. — In holding Lisbon High football team to a 7-0 score, Columbiana's informal football team covered themselves with glory, as the game was scoreless until the last few minutes when one of the Lisbon players snared a pass and on a wide end run, evaded all Columbiana tacklers including Bookwalter and Stevens, safety men. A large crowd of local students accompanied the team to Lisbon.

Under the direction of a capable coach like the present one, Edgar Miller, it has been proven in the abbreviated season that Columbiana boys can play football and with similar conditions prevailing next year it is hoped that a full schedule of games can be secured. In five games played, Columbiana High won three, defeating Canfield, Leavittsburg and Salineville, losing only to East Palestine and Lisbon, both by low scores.

Indoor Games
Two promising tilts are scheduled in the indoor baseball league Monday night. Silvers will meet the Electric Furnace, and the Lyle and Victor lines will go to it in the other game. The season is drawing to a close, but the games are getting more exciting and interesting despite numerous forfeits that have been necessary lately.

RED GRANGE SIGNS CONTRACT TO PLAY AS CHICAGO BEAR

Illinois Star Will Play His First Pro Game On Turkey Day.

Chicago, Nov. 23. — Professional football becomes a reality for Harold "Red" Grange at the Cubs park this afternoon when the Illinois ice man buckles on his armor and the Orange of the Chicago Bears from his initial workout with the North Side entry in the national football league.

Grange signed contracts with the Bear organization early Sunday scarcely 24 hours after making his last run as a college star, and viewed yesterday's defeat of Green Bay from the bench. This afternoon secret practice will be instituted and beginning tomorrow, two drills will be held daily until Grange has thoroughly mastered the intricate offense planned for him in his professional contests.

Grange's signing for his first appearance against the strong Chicago Cardinals at the Cub park on Thanksgiving day was not without its five qualities. Rushed here from Columbus, "Red" conferred with Manager George Halas and affixed his signature to an agreement while two promoters from Rochester, interested in that city's franchise in the national football league, and a representative of Billy Gibson, backer of the New York Giants, also of the grid circuit, were dashing westward to proposition him.

New York, Nov. 23. — Announcement that Harold "Red" Grange had signed a professional contract with the Chicago Bears threw local football followers into a fever of expectancy today.

The Bears are expected to meet the New York Giants in the season's finale at the Polo grounds, Dec. 6, and this was taken to mean that Grange will make his first appearance in New York on that date.

The field will seat more than 60,000 for the occasion and it has been taken for granted that Red Grange day here will be a sell out, at fancy prices.

It is announced that another meeting of this committee will be held at Columbus, Dec. 10 when other recommendations for changes in recent state laws will be made, and all of which will be submitted at a meeting of the bar association which will convene in Cincinnati Jan. 20-30.

FRIEDMAN WILL TACKLE WALKER IN NEWARK BOUT
Newark, N. J., Nov. 23. — Chief Inspector William Van Buskirk, of the New Jersey boxing commission, will go to Philadelphia today to look over the physical condition of Sailor Friedman, Chicago welterweight, in his training for a bout with Mickey Walker here on Wednesday night.

Van Buskirk gave Walker a clean bill of health after inspecting the champion in training several days ago.

The new state rule, making it obligatory for champions to come in at the official weight, has made it possible for the title to change hands on Wednesday, if Friedman wins by a knockout or on a foul.

LEETONIA LAYS CLAIM TO TITLE

Leetonia, Disputing Claim, Demands a Game With River City Team.

Following the defeat of Leetonia by Salem, which in turn was defeated by East Liverpool, the Ceramic City High school team now claims the county scholastic championship. Its record shows three victories, no defeats and no tie games in the county this season.

SEBRING LOADS UP, DEFEATS SCHAFERS

With their lineup filled with outside stars, the Sebring Independents scored three touchdowns in the first quarter and defeated Salem's Schafers Billiards, 19 to 0, at Sebring Sunday.

Despite promises made previous to Sunday that there would be no loading up, Sebring secured such stars as Joe Mills of the Akron Pros and Ellis of West Virginia Wesleyan university to play a part of the game.

Sebring got the jump on the Schafers and though outplayed the last half, the potters succeeded in keeping the Billiards from scoring. Hogue, former Toronto Pro star, called the Sebring plays.

The Schafers were handicapped by the absence of Stouffer and Fynee, linemen, and Cecil Scullion, back.

Thursday the Schafers play the Lisbon United Cigars here at Reilly field.

COMEDY AT GRAND

George M. Cohan's famous farce "Seven Keys to Baldpate" will be seen on the screen at the Grand to night and Tuesday, with Douglas MacLean as the star.

The story as it has been brought to the screen concerns MacLean as a young author who has been abroad supposedly writing a novel. He returns a day before the deadline date for publication without a line of his book written. His publisher, and incidentally his fiance's father, is furious and forbids his marriage to the girl until he turns over the finished manuscript.

Doug has 24 hours to turn the trick—a seemingly impossible task. He retires to the seclusion of Baldpate Inn, a hotel which has been closed for the season, and sets to it with a will. He is sure to be undisturbed for he is told he has the only key to the place.

What happens to Doug when a gang of crooks make the inn their headquarters and six other "only keys" put in an appearance, make "Seven Keys to Baldpate" real screen entertainment.

"THE BEST PEOPLE"

A dazzling success in the world of finance and a dismal failure at rearing a family is the study in contrast strikingly shown in "The Best People," Sidney Olcott's newest production for Paramount, due at the State tonight.

A husband learns that after he has rolled up his millions, he has entirely overlooked the welfare of his son and daughter, until it is forcefully brought home to him by the daughter falling in love with the family chauffeur and the son with a chorus girl.

The mother of the children is more alarmed about the ensuing disgrace to her than she is over the future welfare of the children. Incidentally, the children, who have come to mock and scorn the authority of the parents.

feel that they are able to choose for themselves.

How the tangle is straightened out makes a mighty interesting picture and gives its own answer to the problem "who are the best people?"

Featured in the production are Warner Baxter, as the chauffeur; chorus girl; Kathryn Williams, as the mother. In the supporting cast are Edwards Davis, who plays the father; Margaret Morris, the daughter of wealth; Joseph Striker, cast as the son; William Austin, Margaret Livingston, and Ernie Adams.

Why They Hesitated

An inspector of schools at Natal, South Africa, after inspecting a small farm school, situated at the mouth of one of the rivers on the coast, invited the boys to join him in a swim in the lagoon.

The boys accompanied him to the lagoon, watched him unress and go in, but themselves remained on the bank.

After a long and enjoyable swim, the inspector came out and proceeded to dress. He chaffed the boys for not coming in, and said: "I suppose you are afraid to bathe with an inspector?" "No, sir," said one of the boys, "but we saw a crocodile in this lagoon yesterday."

These Sadder Days

On the whole, these are much sadder ages than the early ones; not sadder in a noble and deep way, but in a dim, wearied way—the way of ennui, and jaded intellect, and uncomfortable of soul and body. Not that we are without festivity, but festivity more or less forced, mistaken, unblithed, incomplete, not of the heart. And the profoundest reason of this darkness of heart is, I believe, our want of faith. Ruskin.

HELPED THROUGH CHANGE OF LIFE

Took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound during This Critical Time—Benefited Greatly

Baltimore, Maryland.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to help me through the Change of Life and for a broken-down system. I had been complaining a long time and dragging along had tried other medicines which did not help me much. I read in the newspapers of the Vegetable Compound and after taking a bottle I felt better. I did not stop with one bottle, but took it through the whole critical time and am now practically a well woman. I have two daughters whose health was very bad before they married and I was worried about them. I got the Vegetable Compound for them and it helped them, and after they married it also helped them in bearing their babies. This is a great and good medicine for all complaints of women, and I recommend it to all."—Mrs. L. GINGRICH, 1375 N. Gilmore St., Baltimore, Maryland.

The Vegetable Compound is a dependable medicine for women of middle age. Let it relieve you of nervousness, that feeling of strain and those annoying hot flashes so common at this time.

Seven tons of our best coal will heat the average two-story house all winter in place of nine or ten tons of ordinary fuel.

Some folks call it the "lazy man's fuel" because you only have to fire your furnace once in the morning and once in the evening—and clean out the ash pit once a week.

Use this coal and you'll have a warm house all the time—but no soot nor cinders—and the wife will never need to touch the furnace.

LEETONIA

The Thursday Afternoon Reading club was most pleasantly entertained in the home of Mrs. G. W. Irwin, Chestnut st. The president, Mrs. S. R. Fellows, presided over the meeting, the subject for discussion, "Egypt," was handled in a most interesting manner. The following reading papers which were most excellent, and were much enjoyed: Mrs. Paul H. Beaver gave a paper, "Architecture," a paper, "Temple of Luxor" was given by Mrs. Cassandra Crook; Miss Bertha Adam gave "Modes of Travel in Egypt."

In response to the roll call, Thanksgiving sentiments were given which showed a wonderful spirit of thankfulness in the membership of the club.

One visitor was present, Mrs. M. A. Taylor of Youngstown, a former club member and resident of Leetonia.

The 22nd anniversary of the local L. C. B. A. was fittingly celebrated on Thursday evening in the K. of C. rooms, Walnut and Main sts. Twenty-three years ago Mrs. Mary Connelly organized the order in Leetonia and those present of the charter members were Mrs. Connelly, Mrs. John Arnold, Mrs. Kate Bradley, Mr. Edward Dean, Mrs. P. B. Lavelle, Miss Clara McCue, Miss Mame McCue, Mrs. Clara Neheisel, Mrs. Bridget Gallagher, Mrs. Margaret Ready of Leetonia; Mrs. Daniel McGrath of Youngstown, Mrs. James Bradley of Salem, a charter member was not able to be present, owing to sickness. The charter members were all seated at the head table which was centered by a beautiful cake with 22 lighted candles. This table as well as the others were very prettily with their decoration of flowers.

The charter member's prize was won by Mrs. Margaret Ready. A telegram of congratulations was read from Mrs. Celia Forney of California, a charter member of the organization.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel.

The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel. Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lousy" and "heavy." They clear a clouded brain and "perk up" the spirits. 10c and 30c.

COURT NEWS

Sues Administrator

In a petition filed in common pleas court by Minnie McGhee against Frank L. Wells, as administrator of the estate of the late Margaret J. Smith, $2,995 is claimed due the defendant for work, labor and care given the defendant by the plaintiff during the lifetime of Margaret Smith. The service rendered was for a period extending from April 1, 1921 until May 1, 1925, and while the total claim of the plaintiff was placed at $5,075 a payment has been made, reducing the amount claimed now due at $2,995.

Sues For Royalty

Henry I. Spence seeks a judgment of $1,500 against C. F. Adamson and the Adamson Manufacturing Co., according to a petition just filed in common pleas court by Attorney Martin A. Tuttle of Painesville, through Billingsley & Moore of Lisbon.

The petition relates that Oct. 19, 1921, the plaintiff granted the defendant a license to manufacture a certain lubricating system on a royalty basis, ranging from 25 to 50 cents each, according to the volume produced, and that the contract provided that a number not to be less than 2,000 of the item be manufactured during a certain period of years.

Seeks Heart Balm

Charging that Harry Pugh, a machinist employed at the East Liverpool street car barns, alienated the affections of his wife, James L. Pugh, through his counsel, Charles Boyd, has filed an action in common pleas court against Pugh, claiming $20,000 damages.

The petition relates that Prough and his wife were married Sept. 26, 1918, and also goes on to say that Pugh "wrongfully and injuriously enticed, instigated and persuaded Annie M. Prough, wife of the plaintiff to depart and absent herself from the plaintiff."

Prough also alleges in his petition that Pugh had improper influence over Annie M. Prough and that as a result, he "has been made desolate and ruined."

Pigeon Aids Identification

A homing pigeon was the means of discovering the identity of a man found unconscious and badly injured at the foot of a steep hill at Woodseats, near Sheffield. On the back of the cycle was found a basket containing homing pigeons, of which the police took charge. All attempts to identify the man by sending out a police description and by an appeal from the Sheffield relay wireless station failed, and recently the police liberated two of the pigeons, with notes attached to their legs. Shortly afterward they received a message from one of the owners of the pigeons, living near Chesterfield who telephoned information which gave a clue to the man's identity—Family Herald.

The New Pirate Hat

Dorothy Gish Adds a New Outline to the Season's Established Mode—The Chic of the Small Hat Is Varied

Just as the head had become accustomed to the feeling of snugness and warmth of the enduring small felt, Paris decreed that there should be a diversity and elaboration of the new fall and winter hat.

Dorothy Gish, who is appearing in the First National film, "Clothes Make the Pirate," has introduced a hat but original lines and great appeal. Leon Errol, who is seen with Miss Gish in the film, designed the hat especially for Miss Gish. Black felt, cut along established lines, with the skull and bones succeeded by two pins crossed in like manner, add a note of dash and color to the hat.

Felts, of course, are still very much in the mode. In charming shades and shapes that are made to accompany almost every frock in the elaborate wardrobe. The outlines of these trim little hats, however, have been softened until they meet with the requirements of the new mode. The severity of the all plain and tailored hat of last year has been succeeded by a hat of smartness which creates a slightly softer line and casual elegance and yet maintains an air of simplicity.

The velvet, which is so very becoming, is softer in feeling than the felt and is exquisite in the fall tones. Blue, green, rose, wine and the always popular beige and black are lustrous and highly becoming in velvet. The velvet hat, with its smartly upturned brim, its winged effect on one side, its cut back and drooping side, is very chic for the afternoon ensemble. The grosgrain trimming is most effective on this type of hat—when any trimming is used at all.

The four materials used with the greatest resulting popularity are velvets, felts, grosgrain and satin. The invasion of velvets into the field of smart hats has continued with unabating success. The velvet toque and turban are best adapted to the velvet hat, while occasionally the larger hat finds this fabric best suited.

Satin and grosgrain ribbons are skillfully combined in some of the smaller hats. Cascades of the ribbon falling at one side create an interesting outline.

The large hat, which persists in its popularity, is often intricate in its outline. There will be a skillful fold here and there to add to its smartness, and the trimming is always of an unusual nature.

Feathers have come to the fore in trimming the latest hats. They are never used in simple trimming, but are placed in odd lines to create a chic effect. The matching feather and velvet hat—in the very small model—is very becoming and complements the formal daytime ensemble perfectly.

The draped turban continues the most appealing head covering for the evening. Just now the simple draped outline has been enlarged upon and there is frequently seen a tiara like front in jeweled pattern which adds a note of importance to the costume.

Large bows at one side lend a definite note of chic. But they are hard to duplicate when copied from the famous Paris imports. The bow, to be at all effective, has to give a very chic outline.

Fur is used on some hats, but is used carefully. The tails frequently are seen as an effective form of trimming on the small hat.

Cascading feathers are a feature of the afternoon hat. The hat is usually of velvet in very intricate cut and features a cascading movement of ostrich feathers over part of the crown and well down over the shoulder. Feathers, when skillfully applied, add a note of smartness to the formal attire that is difficult to duplicate.

Chicken with Rice—Clean and cut fowl into pieces as for frying and roll in seasoned flour or meal. In a frying pan put a small amount of fat, add a sliced onion and a sliced green pepper and cook until tender. Brown the chicken quickly in the seasoned fat; add two cups of hot water and one and one-half cups cooked rice. Cover closely and cook slowly until the chicken is tender, adding more water if necessary.

Apple Dumplings—Measure two cups of flour, add two teaspoons baking powder or one teaspoon soda, according to whether you use sweet or sour milk for wetting, one teaspoon salt and one of sugar. Sift together. Rub in two tablespoons butter or lard or half of each and add enough sweet or sour milk to make a soft dough. Turn out on board, roll out to one-half inch in thickness and cut in three and four inch squares. Put some sliced apple in the middle of each one, sweeten and flavor with a little butter and cinnamon; bring the corners together, pinch up the openings and cook. These dumplings are nice, either boiled, baked or steamed, and will require about one-half hour to cook. Serve with cream and sugar if baked and with a boiled sauce if steamed or boiled.

Carrots a la Duchesse—Cut the carrots into slices and boil them in one pint of stock, also put in some peppercorns and a bouquet of mixed herbs. When the carrots are quite tender take them out and keep hot in a deep dish, while you strain the gravy and reheat; make a smooth paste with a little dessert spoonful of flour and a little melted fresh butter; stir it into the saucepan and continue stirring until it boils up, then pour over the carrots and serve.

LATEST IN STYLE FOR WOMEN

Paris, Nov. 23.—Turbans and toques are taking the place of the little round cloche which has held the front lines for so long a time that the smart modistes were beginning to wonder if they would ever dislodge it.

Turbans are growing in popularity because the older women find them becoming and they can be made to look youthful in the younger set. Folded with great skill into a soft shape of velvet or silk, the turban makes an excellent setting for any pretty head. Many of the chic modistes are showing turbans for almost every occasion, often in two colorings and toques in two shades of gold tissue are being much worn for restaurants in the afternoon and for the dancant. The new soft pannes and lames are ideal for these draped shapes.

The beret is also regaining favor this winter, but it is not everyone's hat and really only the very young and the very gay should attempt to wear it. It should have a high back and very carefully adjusted crown and "tail" side so that as little as possible be left to careless adjustment. Soft velvet is the best material to be used for the beret.

Crowns are getting higher and are dented and curved in various ways. The very small hard hat is really gone. All the new ones are soft and pliable with broader brims which turn either at the back, in the front or at the sides.

COLDS THAT DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. Creomulsion Company, Atlanta, Ga. (Ad 1)

DR. W. B. CALDWELL
AT THE AGE OF 83

Your Laxative! Does It Regulate for Weeks?

To Dr. W. B. Caldwell, of Monticello, Ill., a practicing physician for 47 years, it seemed cruel that so many constipated men, women and children and particularly old folks, had to be kept constantly "stirred up" and half sick by taking cathartic pills, tablets, salts, calomel and nasty oils.

While he knew that constipation was the cause of nearly all headaches, biliousness, indigestion and stomach misery, he did not believe that a sickening "purge" or "physic" every day or two was necessary.

In Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin he discovered a laxative which regulates the bowels. A single dose will establish natural, healthy bowel movement for weeks at a time even for those chronically constipated. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin not only causes a gentle easy bowel movement but, best of all, it is often months before another dose is necessary. Besides, it is absolutely harmless, and so pleasant that even a cross, feverish, bilious sick child gladly takes it.

Buy a large 60-cent bottle at any store that sells medicine and just see for yourself.

All medical science has lately had to confess a very grave mistake. For generations it has been supposed that cathartics stimulated torpid livers. Now all physicians know that they don't.

But a new science has developed. It relates to gland secretions. That research has revealed the fact that ex-gall—a gland secretion—does make the liver active.

There is no doubt. Ox-gall has stood all the clinical tests. Physicians the world over prescribe it. And countless people everywhere rejoice at its effects.

Torpid liver causes millions of ill conditions. Among them are these: High Blood Pressure—Kidney and Indigestion—Heart Troubles—Constipation—Bad Complexions—Impure Blood—Lack of Youth.

Torpid liver means scanty bile. And that lets poison form in the intestines. Those poisons affect the health and vitality of perhaps half the people you meet.

Now ox-gall comes in tablet form, called Dioxol. Each tablet contains 19 drops of purified ox-gall. All druggists supply them.

Learn what Dioxol does. Find out what it means to really stimulate your liver. It may change your whole life and career. You are welcome to do this at our expense. Mail us the coupon now.
